

Chapter 1: Managing and the manager's Job

List of questions and answer

1. What is an Organization ?

An organization is a structured group of people working together to achieve specific goals.

or

A group of people working together in a structured and coordinated fashion to achieve a set of goals

2. What are the organizational resources

- Human resources
 - Managerial talent and labor
- Financial resources
 - Capital investments to support on going and long-term operations
- Physical Assets
 - Raw materials; office and production facilities, and equipment
- Information
 - Usable data, information linkages

3. What is Management ?

Management is a set of activities (planning, decision-making, organizing, leading, and controlling) directed at an organization's resources (human, financial, physical, and information) to achieve organizational goals efficiently and effectively.

4. What are the Four Functions of Management?

- Planning and Decision Making – Setting goals and determining the best course of action.
- Organizing – Grouping activities and resources efficiently.
- Leading – Motivating and guiding employees toward achieving goals.
- Controlling – Monitoring progress and making corrections as necessary.

5. What is the Basic Purpose of Management?

- Efficiency –Refers to the process of using resources wisely and in a cost-effective way.
- Effectiveness –Refers to the process of making the right decisions and ensuring they are implemented successfully.

6. What are the Inputs of the Management Process?

- Human resources
- Financial resources
- Physical resources
- Information resources

7. What is manager?

Manager is someone whose primary responsibility is to carry out the management process.

Manager is Someone who plans and makes decisions, organizes, leads, and controls human, financial, physical, and information resources.

8. What are the Different Levels of Management / Managers?

- Top Managers – A small group of executives who manage the overall organization. They create the organization's goals, overall strategy, and operating policies.
- Middle Managers – A largest group of managers in organizations who are primarily responsible for implementing the policies and plans of top managers. They also supervise and coordinate the activities of lower level managers.
- First-Line Managers – Managers who supervise and coordinate daily activities of employees.

9. What are the Types of Managers by Area?

- Marketing Managers – Work in areas related to getting consumers and clients to buy the organization's products or services — Handle New product development, promotion, and distribution.
- Financial Managers – Deal primarily with an organization's financial resources (accounting, cash management, and investments)
- Operations Managers – Concerned with creating and managing the systems that create organization's products and services (production control, inventory, quality control, plant layout, site selection)
- Human Resource Managers –Involved in human resource planning like Handle hiring, training, and employee relations.
- Administrative Managers – Generalists who are familiar with all functional areas of management and who are not associated with any particular management specialty.

10. What are the Managerial Roles According to Mintzberg?

1. Interpersonal Roles (Figurehead, Leader, Liaison)
 - Figurehead - Attending ribbon-cutting ceremony for new plant
 - Leader - Encouraging employee to improve productivity
 - Liaison - Coordinating activities of two projects
2. Informational Roles (Monitor, Disseminator, Spokesperson)
 - Monitor - Scanning industry reports to stay abreast(সামনে) of development
 - Disseminator(প্রচারক) - Sending memos(মেমো) outlining(রূপরেখা) new organizational initiatives
 - Spokesperson - Making a speech to discuss growth plans
3. Decisional Roles (Entrepreneur, Disturbance Handler, Resource Allocator, Negotiator)

- Entrepreneur - Developing new ideas for innovations
- Disturbance Handler - Resolving conflict between two subordinates
- Resource Allocator - Reviewing and revising budget requests
- Negotiator - Reaching agreement with a key supplier or labor union

11. What are the Essential Managerial Skills?

- Technical Skills – Skills necessary to accomplish or understand the specific kind of work being done in an organization.
- Interpersonal Skills – Ability to interact and work well with people. The ability to communicate with, understand, and motivate both individuals and groups.
- Conceptual Skills – Ability to think abstractly and strategize.
- Diagnostic Skills – Ability to analyze and solve problems.
- Communication Skills – Ability to effective exchange of information.
- Decision-Making Skills – The manager's ability to recognize and define problems and opportunities correctly and then to select an appropriate course of action to solve the problems and capitalize on opportunities.
- Time-Management Skills – The manager's ability to prioritize work, to work efficiently, and to delegate(প্রতিনিধি) appropriately.

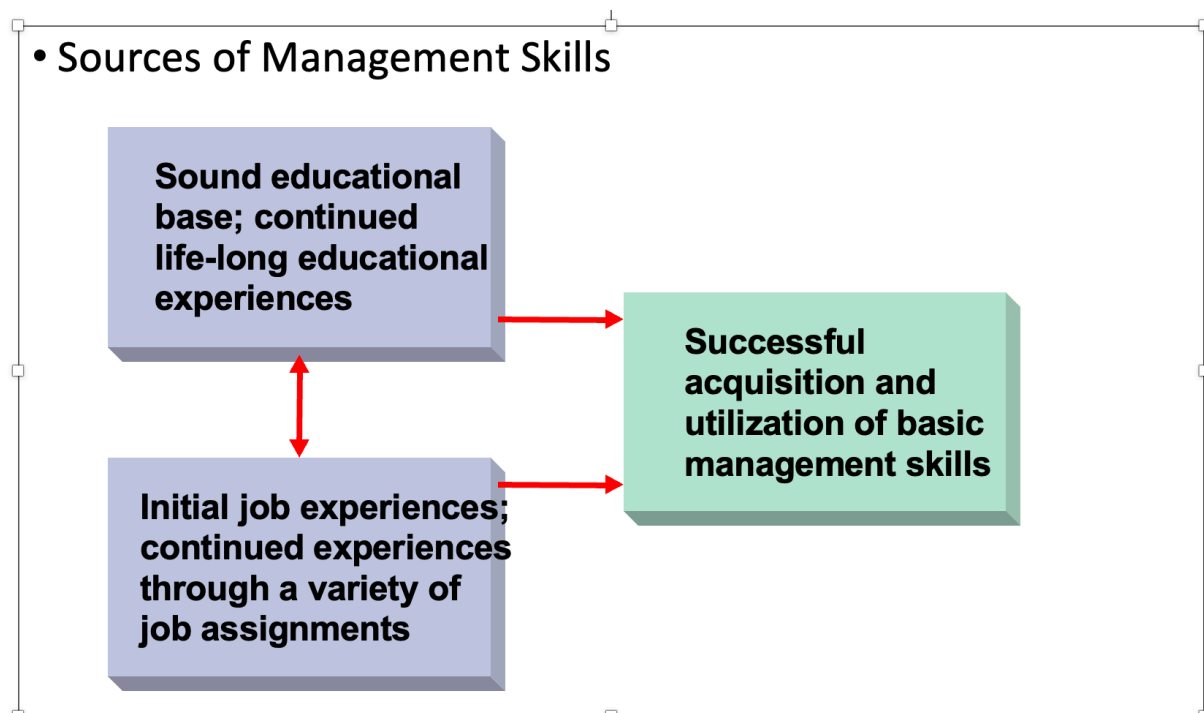

12. Is Management a Science or an Art?

- Science of Management – Uses logical, systematic, and technical approaches.
 - Assumes that problems can be approached using rational, logical, objective, and systematic ways.
 - Requires the use of technical, diagnostic, and decision-making skills and techniques to solve problems.
- Art of Management – Relies on intuition, experience, and creativity.

- Decisions are made and problems solved using a blend(মিশ্রিত করা) of intuition(অন্তর্দৃষ্টি), experience, instinct(প্রবৃত্তি), and personal insights(অন্তর্দৃষ্টি).
- Requires the use of conceptual, communication, interpersonal, and time-management skills to successfully accomplish(সম্পন্ন করা) the tasks associated with managerial activities.

13. What are the Sources of Management Skills?

- Formal education and continuous learning.
- On-the-job experience and diverse job roles.
- Application and refinement of basic management skills.

14. What are the Different Types of Organizations in Management?

1. For Profit Organizations

- Large Businesses – Industrial firms, banks, service organizations.

- Small Businesses & Startups – Entrepreneurial and innovation-driven.
 - International Management – Managing businesses across global markets.
2. Not-for-Profit Organizations – Government agencies, hospitals, NGOs.
- Governmental organizations
 - Educational organizations
 - Healthcare facilities

This summary covers all the topics mentioned in your slides. Let me know if you need a more detailed explanation on any specific topic! 🚀